2004 CHAMPIONSHIP

Picked to finish eighth by opposing coaches in the America East Preseason Poll, the 2004 Bearcats stunned the league by capturing both the regular season and tournament championships and advancing to the NCAA tournament in just the program's fourth year of Division I membership.

America East Coach of the Year Jeff Leightman led his squad to a 14-6-1 record, including a 6-3 mark against conference foes. The Bearcats secured the regular season title and home field for the tournament with a pair of wins to end the regular season. Binghamton rallied past conference power Boston University 2-1 in overtime and then knocked off then-league leading Northeastern 2-0 in the regular-season finale to grab the program's first Division I regular season title and subsequent America East tournament berth.

The two-day, four-team tournament was played amid frigid temperatures on BU's practice field after the game field had incurred too much damage in the rain-soaked prior week. In the semifinals on November 5, BU controlled play from start to finish in eliminating fifth-seeded Northeastern, 3-0. Sophomore midfielder Kelly Burnham ripped a 16-yard shot through a maze of players into the far corner to open the scoring just 5:30 into the contest. The Bearcats took the 1-0 margin into halftime and extended it just 3:26 into the second half when senior forward Tatiana Mathelier netted her team-high eighth goal of the season. Sophomore forward Danielle White completed the scoring with 2:32 left and sophomore keeper Kristie Bowers made five saves to post her sixth shutout of the season.

Two days later, BU notched a 2-0 win over No. 2 Maine to capture the historic crown. After the Black Bears had the better of play for most of the first half, BU seized the lead with 9:30 remaining in the period. Off a corner kick, freshman forward Tricia Reed outleaped the Maine keeper and sent a header toward the unoccupied net, where a Black Bears defender reached out and stopped the shot with her hand, prompting a penalty kick call. Junior defender Meghan Taylor, the tournament MVP, slotted the ensuing 12-yard kick into the top left corner for a 1-0 margin. In the second half, Burnham scored an insurance goal in the 78th minute on a close-range header. Bowers made six saves for her third straight shutout and seventh of the season. A crowd of more than 400 boisterous fans erupted at the final whistle, joining the team in celebration.

Taylor (MVP), freshman defender Katie Kerrigan, Burnham and Mathelier were selected to the all-tournament team.

Binghamton's reward for winning its first conference crown since 1996 was a trip to State College and a first-round NCAA matchup with the nation's No. 2 team, Penn State. The Nittany Lions were aided by two 'own goals' and added a penalty kick en route to a 6-1 win, ending BU's storybook season. Mathelier briefly evened the score a 1-1 in the ninth minute, taking down a pass off the head of freshman linemate Kim Povill and beating the Penn State keeper from 12 outs out. It was Mathelier's ninth goal of the season. Penn State tacked on two more first-half goals and two more in a 6:15 span early in the second half to pull away. Bowers was tested all night long and made 10 saves.

"It was a special year," Leightman said. I'm really proud of this team. We took a huge step forward in success."

HONOR ROLL

NSCAA ALL-AMERICANS

MARIA FESEL
First Team, 1995 and 1996 • Defender

Feasel is the school's only two-time first team soccer All-American. She anchored Binghamton's defensive unit from the sweeper position, and led the '95 and '96 teams to a combined 39-6-3 mark and back-to-back NCAA Division III tournament appearances. She was inducted into BU's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

NIKKI LESKO
Third Team, 1994 • Forward

Lesko broke the school record with 23 goals in 22 games during the '94 season. She scored a BU-best five goals in one game and led the '94 team to the ECAC Mid-Atlantic Championship.

TARA DEFLIPPO
Third Team, 1995 • Goalkeeper

DeFlippo was a stalwart in goal for the '95 team, allowing just eight goals in 19 games for a 0.38 goals against average. She recorded eight shutouts, had a 93.1 save percentage and led the team to a 12-4-3 record and NCAA Division III tournament

Binghamton Hall of Fame Members

MELISSA COHEN '90
Induction Class of '96

Cohen was a three-sport athlete who served as the team's goalkeeper from 1986-90. She was a four-time all-conference pick, three-time captain and two-time all-region selection. In her last two seasons, Cohen led Binghamton to 20 wins and a pair of postseason appearances.

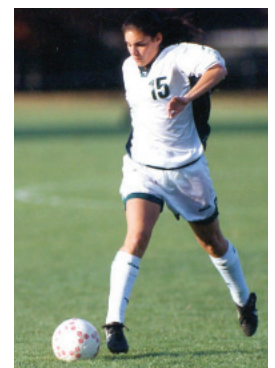

MARIA WENZEL '93
Induction Class of '98

Wenzel was a three-time all-conference defender who started more games (81) than any player in program history. Over her four-year career, Binghamton allowed less than one goal per game and her teams won at least 10 games every season. She was the University's Athlete of the Year in 1990-91.

NEOMIE FRIEDMAN '94
Induction Class of '99

Friedman scored a school-record 60 goals in her four-year career. She also graduated as the program's all-time leader in assists (21) and points (141). Friedman was a three-time all-state selection and was on the national All-America ballot in 1993 after pumping in 22 goals. Her teams reached postseason all four years and she was named the University's Athlete of the Year in 1993-94.

JAMIE KISSEL '00
Induction Class of '10

Kissel is the program's all-time scoring leader with 63 goals and 157 points in 78 career games. She ranks second in career assists with 31. A four-time all-region selection, Kissel led her teams to a 54-19-5 combined record and four postseason appearances. She was an Academic All-American in 1999 and was given the school's prestigious Foundation Award in 2000.
